

With The Poets
Chant me a rhyme of Christmas—Sing me a jovial song—
And though it is filled with laughter, Let it be true and strong.
Sing of the hearts brimmed over With the story of the day—Of the echo of childish voices That will not die away.
Of the blare of the tasseled bugle,
And the timeless clatter and beat Of the drums that throbs to muster Squadrons of scampering feet.
But, O let your voice fall fainter, Till, blent with a minor tone You temper the song with the beauty Of the pity Christ has shown.
And sing one verse for the voiceless;
And yet, ere the song be done, A verse for the ears that hear not,
And a verse for the sightless one.
For though it be time for singing A merry Christmas, glee, Let a low, sweet voice of pathos Run through the melody.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

Mrs. Ollie Young
Mrs. Ollie Virginia Young, wife of E. Blair Young, was born in Smyth county, July 22, 1879, died at Maxwell, Dec. 9, 1911. She was the daughter of John Andrew and Elizabeth Rhudy, being the eldest of ten children, and herself the mother of five children, the oldest of whom, Clinton Newberry, the only son, died last February. The health of sister Young, which was then delicate, began to decline from this, and while she would improve, she never fully regained her strength and in the early fall began to decline rapidly.

She made a profession of religion at Mt. Pleasant church, Maxwell, under the pastorate of Rev. Boyd, in May 1909 and united with the M. E.
Church, South, of which she remained a faithful member until God took her home. She was a strong Christian character, withstanding severe temptations, and when Satan presented himself as an angel of light. In her last hours, when her friends and loved ones could not restrain their grief, she would look at them and smiling, say, "Don't grieve for me; I am going home."

Services were conducted at the home at 11 a. m. Sunday, by the writer, and her body placed to rest in the Peery Cemetery, near Tazewell.
May the Holy Spirit comfort the hearts of the bereaved ones.
CHAS. A. PANGLE.

A Letter to Santa Clause North Tazewell, R. F. D. No. 2, Box 50. Dear Santa: I will write you a letter to let you know what I want you to bring me Christmas. I want you to bring me a twenty-two rifle gun, a big rubber ball, a storybook, a little set of tools and lots of candy and fruits, and please don't forget my little dog, Buster, and bring him a collar. I will be good and go to bed early.
Yours,
Jimmie Taylor.

Card of Thanks To our friends and neighbors who were so kind and helpful during the sickness and death of our little daughter, we extend our heartfelt thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Davidson.
Paint Lick, Dec. 12.

In Memory
Ethel Blanch Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Davidson died December 6, 1911 aged four years, one month and thirteen days. Little Ethel was a bright and lovable child, and will be sadly missed in the home she brightened with her sunny disposition and sweet voice, but she has gained a home with the dear Master, who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." The funeral services were conducted by Rev. King at Witten's Mill, where the little body was laid away to rest.

QUIT SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs.
Green, But She Finally Found Relief In Cardui.

Meetze, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up.
Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well.
One day, I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me!
Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.
The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."
A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.
It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy.
Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.
It may be just the medicine you need.

Good Roads And China's Dynasty

Correspondence of London Spectator: On going over some old notes of Peking in 1904 I came across the subjoined prophecy: "The Ming dynasty came to an end when the temples were restored. The Ching dynasty will end when the roads are put in order."

In 1904 the roads were far from being put in order, because on one occasion, driving out to dinner in a rickshaw, I got bogged at the bottom of Legation street, near the Ha-ta Gate, the mud coming right up to the axles of my carriage. Since then the advent of the motor-car has created great changes and now it may reasonably be said that the roads have been put in order.

As regards the railway coming to Peking, we must go back to the time when the northern capital was built.
At that period, it will be remembered, Nanking was the chief city. But, poetically, the Emperor is sometimes referred to as the "Dragon," whereas the Empress is symbolized by the "Phoenix." When, therefore, Peking was built, according to the Chinese astrologers, it was constructed in the form of a Phoenix, the half moon of the Chinese city outside the Tartar wall representing the wings.

When the railway came it cut through the Chinese city wall and ran parallel to the Tartar city wall, thereby cutting the bird's wings.

The astrologers declared that the Phoenix would never fly again, and undoubtedly the Chinese were very hostile at first to the foreign iron road.

HAPPY RESULTS
Have Made Many Tazewell
Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Tazewell citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Tazewell by Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. A. Hagy, Carline St., Tazewell, Va. says: "I am pleased to verify the statement I gave several years ago recommending Doan's Kidney Pills.
For a long time I was troubled by a dull, heavy pain across the small of my back and my kidneys were in bad shape. Doan's Kidney Pills were procured at Jackson's Drug Store and brought me prompt and effective relief.
I am certain that this remedy possesses great merit and therefore I have no hesitation in advising its use."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c.

Remember the name—Doan's—and ake no other.

The small city of Odder, Denmark, a place of some 4,000 inhabitants, still refuses to allow the motor-car to use its roads. Motorists passing through the town have to procure a horse to draw their car through the streets, and those guilty of contraventions of this regulation are heavily fined.—
